I am very co-operative and I love big opportunities! I am full of ideas of all shapes and forms. I find it enjoyable to participate with other people around my age. If I go into the board room a couple times I will always own up and not blame anyone else to cover up the mistake I had made. I am doing this with a few friends and I hope I can make some new ones too! It would be nice to win but I think it's all about enjoying the moment while it lasts.
