Ski Lessons

In preparation for the College's ski trip in February to Italy. Eighteen first time skiers had lessons over the Halloween break. They all got on extremely well and will no doubt take to the slopes like ducks to water!

Photographs are available on the College website.